Third-Party Cyber Risk in the Retail Industry

Retail companies work with an average of 6,000 third parties

The Current Mitigation Efforts aren't Enough

67% of retailers are most likely to assess third-party relationships and vulnerabilities, including supply chain partners, more than any other industry

Retail companies reported more third-party data breaches that other industries - despite spending an average of 16,578 hours annually on assessments

The Costs of Retail Cyber Security Breaches

$80 MILLION

The civil penalty Capital One paid as a result of their 2019 third-party data breach

OVER 8 MILLION

The estimated number of customer records stolen from Amazon UK, eBay and Shopify due to a security vulnerability in a third-party app

TO LEARN MORE, DOWNLOAD THE INFOSHEET

Third-Party Cyber Risk for The Retail Sector

https://www.cybergrx.com/resources/research-and-insights/data-sheets/third-party-cyber-risk-retail-industry

Cyber GRX